ACT OF INCORPORATION.

AN ACT to incorporate the Mechanics' Institute of the City of Toronto.

WHEREAS an Association hath been Preamble. formed in the City of Toronto in this Province, by divers persons engaged as Mechanics and otherwise, resident in that city and in the neighbourhood thereof, under the name of "The Toronto Mechanics' Institute," for the purpose of forming a Library and Reading Room, and of organizing a system of instruction by means of Lectures and Classes, for the use and benefit of those who are or may hereafter become members of the said Association; and whereas the persons hereinafter named, office-bearers and members of the said association, and acting in behalf thereof, have by their Petition to the Legislature represented that the benefits derivable from the said association would not only be secured but be greatly enhanced by the incorporation of the members thereof, and have prayed that they may be so incorporated; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said Petitioners, subject to the provisions and enactments hereinafter made; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada, and it is hereby enacted, by the authority of the same, that Robert Baldwin Sullivan, T. G. Ridout, S. B. Harrison, William Edwards, A. Christie, J. E. Pell, R. G. Anderson, Wm. Atkinson, Peter Freeland, Charles Sewell, Hugh Miller, Francis Thomas, Thomas Storm, H. Piper, John McLean, John Riddell, Robert Hay, Richard French, and Henry Parry, with all such other persons as are now, or, being duly competent, may hereafter be associated for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, and their successors for ever, shall be one body politic and corporate, in deed and in name, by the name and style of "The Toronto Mechanics' Institute," and shall by that name have perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall have power, from time to time, to alter, renew, or change such common seal at their pleasure, and shall by the same name, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, be able and capable to have, take, receive, purchase, acquire, hold, possess, and enjoy, to them and their successors as aforesaid, to and for the uses and purposes of the said Corporation, any messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of what nature, kind or quality soever, situate, lying and being within this province, not exceeding in yearly value the sum of one thousand pounds, currency,—and also, to take, receive, purchase, acquire, have, hold and possess (provided the same do not exceed a like sum in yearly value) to and for the same uses and purposes, any goods, chattels, gifts, benefactions whatsoever,—and shall and may,

The Committee elect were appointed to draft By-Laws, and to report to a General Meeting of the Corporation.

At a General Meeting of the Corporation, held at the SOCIETY'S HALL, on THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 30TH, 1847, the following By-Laws were reported by the Committee, and adopted. When it was Resolved,—"That they be printed, with the Act of Incorporation and a Catalogue of the Library, and delivered to the Members at a charge of Seven-pence Half-penny per copy."

BY-LAWS.

SECTION I. MEMBERS.

ARTICLE 1.—A member upon proposing any person to be elected a member of this corporation, shall pay to the Recording Secretary an entrance fee of two shillings and six pence for an ordinary member, and one shilling and three pence for a junior member. Proposition and entrance Fee of members.

ARTICLE 2.—Each candidate for membership shall be voted for by ballot, and in the manner provided for in Section VIII. Act of Incorporation. Election of members.

ARTICLE 3.—An ordinary member shall pay an annual subscription of seven shillings and six pence, and a junior member five shillings. Annual amount of members subscription.

ARTICLE 4.—The annual subscriptions of members may commence on the 1st of January, April, July, or October; and no subscription shall be received for less than twelve months. When to commence.

ARTICLE 5.—Ordinary members, whose subscriptions are paid up, are eligible to all offices, to vote at all elections of officers or committee men, and on all questions relative to the conduct of officers, members, or property of the corporation; to the use of the Library or Museum; to attend lectures, Privileges of ordinary members.

classes, or conversations, under the rules made by the committee, and on payment of the fees annexed thereto.

Of junior members.

ARTICLE 6.—Junior members shall be under eighteen years of age, and shall not be eligible to office, or to vote at elections, or on any question; but shall enjoy all the other privileges of ordinary members. Females shall be junior members in every case.

Expulsion and re-admission of members.

ARTICLE 7.—All members whose subscriptions have run out three months and declining to pay up the same, when applied to, shall be expelled by the committee. Any member expelled for immoral conduct or improper language, or for introducing political or religious discussions, shall not be allowed to apply for re-admission until one year after such expulsion—and then only on payment of the ordinary entrance fee.

Admission of members of other Mechanics' Institutes.

ARTICLE 8.—Members of other Mechanics' Institutes, who have belonged thereto and paid to within six months previous to application, may be elected without payment of the entrance fee; the committee to decide upon the right of the claimant.

SECTION II.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE.

Nomination of officers and committee.

ARTICLE 1.—One month previous to the day of the annual election, a list of the members eligible for office, shall be placed in the library, from which any member may nominate one other member for each of the offices and committee, and shall sign his own name to such nomination; and if, one week previous to the day of the election, the number of nominees does not amount to double the number to be elected, the committee shall, if they see fit, fill it up to that number, which shall be the only candidates allowed.

ARTICLE 2.—When only one member is nominated to any office, he shall be declared elected; and should more than one be nominated, the election shall be decided by a majority of votes. Election of officers.

ARTICLE 3.—Any member being nominated to an office and not elected thereto, shall be eligible to be elected on the committee. Nominees eligible for the committee.

ARTICLE 4.—Each member shall write on a slip of paper, the names of any twelve members from the list of nominations, who shall be elected as provided for in the third section of the act of incorporation. Election of committee.

ARTICLE 5.—The officers and committee shall be elected by ballot, except in the cases provided for in Article 2. Two Scrutineers of the ballot shall be appointed at the time of the election. Vote by ballot, and scrutineers.
